Driver, G. R. 1955. “Birds in the Old Testament: I. Birds in Law.” Palestine Exploration Quarterly 87:5–20. A widely quoted article (along with the following one) by a famous biblical scholar, but of limited value due to his questionable attempts to derive the meaning of names from supposed Hebrew roots, and a limited knowledge of the birds of the area.

[Joergensen, K. E. J.] 1972. Fauna and Flora of the Bible. London: United Bible Societies. The flora section of this book is much better than the fauna section. The drawings illustrating the fauna are not to be taken seriously, as they are inaccurate and often misleading.
